

European Renewable Gas Registry (ERGaR) aisbl

By-Laws

as amended by the General Assembly on 2nd December 2021

1. Regulation on membership

1.1. Full members

According to Article 5. (5) of the ERGaR Statutes: “National renewable gases registries, TSO’s or DSO’s and their related associations, and natural and renewable gas industry associations may qualify for full membership in the Association. Any potential full member can be admitted upon its written request to the Association. Considering the related resolution of the Executive Board the General Assembly will decide on the admittance.”

Before being admitted potential full members must declare their readiness to accept and follow the objectives and prevailing regulations of ERGaR and to meet their membership fee commitments.

In their application the potential full members should describe their objectives and activities in the field of renewable gases.

Associated members

According to Article 5. (6) of the ERGaR Statutes “Any other natural or legal person, with an interest in the establishment and maintenance of a documentation system to enable the cross-border trade of renewable gases as envisioned by the Association may become an associated member. Any potential associated member can be admitted by the resolution of the Executive Board upon its written request to the Association.”

Before being admitted potential associated members must declare their readiness to accept and follow the objectives and prevailing regulations of ERGaR and must specify the intended contribution in view of the required minimum level.

In their application the potential associated members should describe their objectives and activities in the field of renewable gases.

2. Regulation on membership fees and finances

2.1. Membership fees and contributions

According to Article 7. of the ERGaR Statutes “Members contribute to the costs of the organisation by paying an annual fee. The details of the calculation of the membership fees may be included in the By-Laws of the organisation. The amount of the fee is the same for both categories, full and associate members, and is determined annually by the General Assembly on the proposal of the Executive Board.”

Membership fees are to be paid within 60 days after invoice receipt.

2.2. Full members

According to Article 5. (2) of the ERGaR Statutes “Full members of the Association contribute to the financing of its activities through the contribution of annual membership fees.”

The annual membership fee for full members of ERGaR for the calendar year 2022 is fixed at 5.000 EUR and is independent from the date of entering ERGaR and independent from the size of the organisation.

The annual membership fee for full members of ERGaR for subsequent years will be decided by the General Assembly in view of the yearly budget proposal by the Executive Board. In lack of decision by the General Assembly for any reasons 5.000 EUR will be the membership fee for 2023 and any subsequent year.

2.3. Associated members

According to Article 5. (3) of the ERGaR Statutes “Associated members contribute to the financing of activities by the payment of an annual membership fee and have voting rights in the General Assembly, both in accordance with the statutes..”

The annual membership fee for associated members of ERGaR is set at 5.000 EUR from 01st January 2022.

The annual membership fee for associate members of ERGaR for subsequent years will be decided by the General Assembly in view of the yearly budget proposal by the Executive Board. In lack of decision by the General Assembly for any reasons 5.000 EUR will be the membership fee for 2023 and any subsequent year.

2.4. Finances

The Association must keep balanced finances. In line with the Belgian law dated 27th June 1921 (on non-profit associations, international non-profit associations and foundations) the members of the Association are not committed to carry a share in compensating any potential financial losses.

In the case of the income from membership fees, associated member’s contributions and sponsorships by non-members does not provide coverage for the expenses the Secretary General must inform the Executive Board immediately, which takes decision on temporary suspending the activities of the Association.

In 2021 the elected officials of the Association (President, Vice President, members of the Executive Board) will not receive remuneration for their work done in the interest of ERGaR. Remunerations may be introduced first from 01st January 2022 subject to approval by the General Assembly in accordance with the budget adopted for 2022.

In 2022 the travel costs of the elected officials of the Association (President, Vice President, members of the Executive Board) related to attending General Assembly and Board meetings will be covered by those member organisations, who nominated them to their ERGaR positions. In lack of adequate financing for travel expenses the members of the Executive Board may attend the Board meetings by phone or may give proxy to other Board Members to represent them on the upcoming meeting.

3. Rules for electronic decision-making within the Executive Board

3.1. All decisions except of acceptance of new members

Decisions will be taken unanimously by all Board Members. Nevertheless, in lack of response within 10 days, the decision is reached by a simple majority of the responses, provided there is no negative response from any Board Member.

3.2. Decisions on acceptance of new members

3.2.1. Full members

The Executive Board decides whether to propose to the General Assembly the admission of a new full member. Decisions will be taken unanimously by all Board Members. Nevertheless, in lack of response within 10 days, the decision is reached by simple majority of the positive responses, provided there is no negative response from any Board Member.

3.2.2. Associated members

Decisions will be taken unanimously by all Board Members. Nevertheless, in lack of response within 3 weeks (including 1 e-mail reminder with a response time of at least 1 week), the applicant will be admitted by simple majority of positive responses, provided there is no negative response from any Board Member.